PRAYER LIST

THINK ABOUT YOUR PRAYER RHYTHMS

We invite the congregation this week to think about your prayer rhythms. One is the sum total of your habits, and therefore it is a very good practice to build the right habits into your life. We as a congregation, have discovered with the journey of faith, that there are a number of ancient habits of faith that have been with the church for centuries, which can be very helpful for us in our following of Christ. We invite you to see which of these prayer habits can also become your own prayer habits:

- First thing in the morning: Silence & Solitude. Take 15 minutes to sit in the presence of your heavenly Father and enjoy His company. You can pour out your heart to Him, knowing that He is your loving Father with all the wisdom for you for the day ahead.
- In the middle of the day: Lectio Divina. Take 15 minutes to read a passage in the Bible this way: you are not reading for information, but to see what word or thought from God's Word speaks to you. Then you talk to the Lord about this: how does His Word affect you, your life right now? Why does the Lord now offer you this thought?
- Last thing in the day: Daily Reflection. Take 15 minutes at the end of the day to think back on the day that has passed. Where did you experience God's grace? (Thank Him). Where did you experience strong emotions? (Confess it, and think about it).

You might just start with one habit, then add another one after a week or two and then another one later. Initially, you do it because you have to, but somewhere in the process you discover its deep value to you and then the habit becomes a lifeline in your walk with the Lord.

Creative Arts

Everyone who enjoys creating something beautiful and artistic with their hands is very welcome to pack what they need, come to church and come and create together! Whether it's painting, drawing, designing, clay work, knitting, "scrapbooking", crocheting, colouring, puzzle building and many more, you're welcome!
